

SURF

From the sofa to the chaise longue, all the elements of the Surf modular system are characterized by the cushions tufted into sections, which generate a sense of total comfort, already at sight as well as in contact with the body. A pleasant contrast to this sense of fullness is created by the thin lines of the armrests and backrest, together with the graceful and dynamic metal feet.

Du canapé à la chaise longue, tous les éléments du système modulaire Surf sont caractérisés par les coussins divisés en sections, qui génèrent une sensation de confort total, déjà à la vue ainsi qu'au contact du corps. Un agréable contraste avec cette sensation de plénitude est créé par les lignes fines des accoudoirs et du dossier, ainsi que les pieds en métal gracieux et dynamiques.
